1. As a result of discussion between representatives of the Office of Reports and Estimates and the Office of Operations it has developed that it would probably be desirable to have some statement concerning the functions [redacted] in relation to the operations of the [redacted] Office of Operations and of C.I.G. as a whole.

2. The enclosure has been prepared with a view to meeting this need. It recaps the C.I.G. memorandum on this subject but the provisions of the rescinded memorandum are included in the proposed draft.

3. It is believed that the proposed draft represents a workable and proper system for making full use of the potentialities [redacted] It should be noted that it sets up no new principles but applies to C.I.G. the same principles that are applicable to the participating IAB agencies in their use of this service.
